8 LARRY BOWOTO, et al.,

No. C 99-02506 SI

9 Plaintiffs,

ORDER RE: AJEWOLE AND JEJE
MOTIONS

10 v.

11 CHEVRON CORPORATION, et al.,

12 Defendants.
13 _____/

14 In October and November of 2006, respectively, defendants filed a motion in limine to exclude
15 testimony of Dr. Williams O. Ajewole, and a motion to exclude evidence and testimony regarding the 16 alleged shooting of Bassey Jeje, for spoliation of evidence under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37.
17 On November 21, 2006, the Court issued an order staying briefing and hearing of both motions until all
18 of the previously scheduled dispositive motions had been heard. The Court has now heard and ruled
19 on the pending dispositive motions; consequently, the contours of the case have changed significantly
20 since defendants filed the two motions at issue. Accordingly, the Court hereby DISMISSES defendants'
21 motion in limine and motion to exclude evidence, without prejudice to renewal should the motions still
22 be appropriate. [Docket Nos. 1300, 1307]
